

Jerry W. Williams

"Imagination and the willingness to look at a situation from a new or different point of view are your best assets in uncovering ways to grow, expand or streamline your business."
-Jerry W. Williams-

"There is not one business owner or start-up in the world who shouldn't broaden their prospective to buy and grow small to large business empires" -Jay Abraham-

706-577-0507 (m)
jerry@JerryWWilliams.com

Jerry W. Williams get results in an inexpensive, efficient way. He specializes in taking under performing assets, making them profit centers and growing the small business into empires.

Since 1975 he has been in various positions including two major national banks. He founded a company that quickly came to be in the top five percent of those in the industry, within an 8 year period and has served in board positions with a not for profit as well as being a former vice-chairman of a political party.

Today he is working as a team member, consultant or Board Member of small businesses whose revenues are less than 8 million. Not only helping them to structure the team for best use, but also working to form sales and marketing departments using creative techniques such as joint venture marketing and helping companies to grow exponentially and dramatically in a very short period.

Mr. Williams is in the process of launching a web based training program for present and future clients. The benefits will be vast and helpful in the expansion of the corporation. Subjects will be those that help indentify strengths and weaknesses and how to market for the strengths.

Clients who utilize Mr. Williams services benefit from over 20 years of professional executive experience, as well as a solid educational background comprising of a Bachelor of Business Degree in Management and a high amount of exposure to finance, investments and law from Columbus State University, Columbus Georgia. He has studied mortgage finance, commercial real estate finance at Capstone Institute and has the ability to identify and purchase commercial properties in areas that are perfect for high growth.

He is a former member of the American Association of Christian Counselor's member, a Certified Financial Independence Consultant and a member of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Williams lives in Columbus, Georgia, is not married but has one son, Brandon a Physician Assistant, in Columbus, Ga.